As travellers on the journey of life, we meet with a number of challenges and changes daily but nothing is difficult with the backing of true, spiritual knowledge. As a spiritual traveller, we now can act with the understanding of 'who I am' and 'how my role can be effective for the world'. With self-respect based on love, wisdom and regular connection with the Divine Being, I can orchestrate a beautiful and successful life for the self, and all those around me.

Dr. S.T. Patil, Hon' Minister for Transport, Maharashtra, participating in workshop

In Transport, Travel and Tourism sectors, with use of ultra modern technology we seek to have control over most things but we lack something when we look at the self and human resources. We generally get results by strict enforcement of discipline, but consistency in this way is lacking. Under the influence of our emotions, habits and traits, we often lose self control and end up shouting, arguing and also drinking and using drugs to try to quell emotions. Many accidents on roads, railway tracks or other places are the results of all these.

To meet these challenges and to cope with external changes, we need to elevate our thought pattern. To dissolve pressures and to master crisis one has to travel to another space - the inner world. Exploring inner powers with spiritual wisdom and experiencing inner peace with the help of meditation, empowers the individual to solve the problems of today's hectic life.

This seminar provides you an opportunity to experience the calmness of mind which takes you to the state of resolving crisis and enjoying a happy and healthy life. It will also be an occasion to interact with participants from various countries and share ideas for professional growth too. You are cordially invited to participate in this International Seminar-cum-Meditation Retreat being organised by the Transport & Travel Wing of the Rajyoga Education & Research Foundation.
